

Home Security SOLUTIONS

Alarm, Access and Surveillance Systems

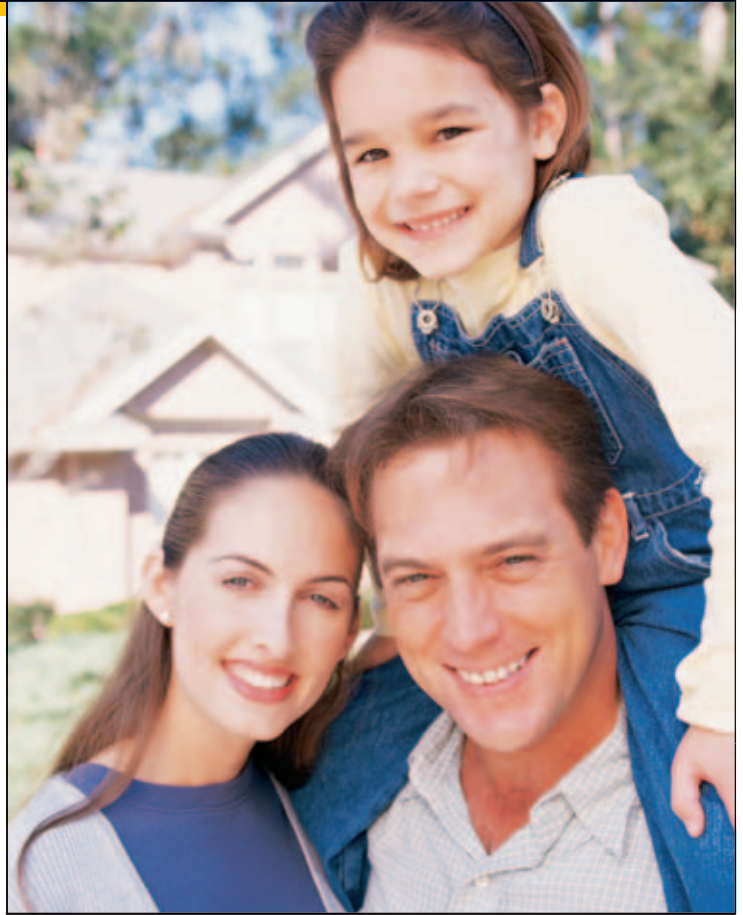

ASG Security offers solutions that fit you and your family.

We all know the feeling, that nagging concern in the back of our minds... What if there's a fire? What if someone breaks in? ASG has a solution for you and your family – to help stop the worrying.

With ASG Security you can gain freedom and peace of mind by allowing us to design an affordable state-of-the-art fire and home security system for your family. We will work with you to develop a solution that fits your lifestyle, while at the same time offering the absolute best protection available. By choosing ASG you aren't just buying into a simple service, you are allowing us to help take on the burden of protecting your most important asset, your family.

ASG Security's commitment to you and your family begins when a sales representative performs an in-depth analysis of your security needs and surveys your home to determine the best security solutions for your family. Then our staff of highly-trained installers and service technicians work together to provide you with the finest security system available.

Our state-of-the-art central monitoring station and highly-skilled personnel are available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to respond to events at your home. When you need the most comprehensive monitoring available for intrusion, fire, carbon monoxide, or emergency police notification – there is only one choice, ASG Security.

We can help protect your family and give you the peace of mind you deserve.

Your home could be protected by ASG Security.

How does an ASG Security system work?

It all comes together with a superior control system and the best quality components working as a team.

ASG Security uses high-quality Ademco™ components to build the best state-of-the-art security systems available. Every piece of your system was designed to work together, so you get unrelenting and error-free service, always.

Convenient Wireless Remotes

Remotely arm and disarm your security system, control lighting, garage doors and more.

Telephone Control

Forgot to arm your system? You can easily arm, disarm, or check the status of your system from any phone or cell phone in the world.

Smoke/Carbon Monoxide Detectors

When smoke or high levels of carbon monoxide gas is detected, these devices are designed to keep your family safe from danger.

Glassbreak Sensors

By providing shatter and shock protection for your windows, glassbreak sensors create an early defense against forced entry into your home.

Motion Detectors

These pet-friendly devices quietly monitor your home against intruder movement while allowing your animals to roam freely around your house.
